3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principle accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the Company and subsidiaries' financial statements are as follows:

3.1 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and deposits at financial institutions. The Company and subsidiaries maintain cash on hand for general use. Deposits at financial institutions, including short – term saving deposits, are highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts with original maturities of three (3) months or less and that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

Deposits at financial institutions that are restricted in use are presented as “Fixed deposits pledged as collateral” as part of non - current assets in the balance sheets.

3.2 Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are carried at original invoice amount less allowance for doubtful accounts.

3.3 Allowance For Doubtful Accounts

The Company and subsidiaries provide allowance for doubtful accounts equal to the estimated losses that may be incurred in the collection of receivables and receivables- planters. The estimated losses are based on the collection experiences and the review of the current status of the existing receivables. Bad debts are written off during the year in which they are identified.

3.4 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined by the weighted average method. The cost of purchase comprises both the purchase price and costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the inventory, such as import duties and transportation charges, less all attributable discounts, allowances or rebates. The cost of finished goods and work in progress comprises raw materials, direct labour, other direct costs and related production overheads, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating activities. Net realisable value is the estimate of the selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the costs of completion and selling expenses. Provision is made, where necessary, for obsolete, slow-moving and defective inventories.

3.5 Investments

Investments in subsidiaries are valued by the equity method.

Equity method of accounting involves recognizing the Company's share of the subsidiaries' profit or loss for the years. The Company's investments in the subsidiaries which carried in the Company's balance sheets are the amount that reflects its share of net assets in the subsidiaries.

3.6 Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. All assets except for land are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation.

Depreciation of plant and equipment are calculated on the straight line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

	No. of Years
Buildings	20
Machineries and equipment	3-10
Vehicles	5
Office equipment and fixtures	5

When assets are sold or retired, the Company and subsidiaries will eliminated their costs and accumulated depreciation from the accounts and any gain or loss resulting from their disposal is included in the statements of income.

Building-in-progress and machinery under installation are stated at cost. These assets are not depreciated until such time as the relevant assets are completed and ready for their intended operational use.

3.7 Interest Capitalization

The Company capitalizes interest on loan for the construction of plant and machinery and equipment under construction and/or installation as part of the cost of assets. Capitalization of interest will cease when those assets are ready for use in the operations.

Interest capitalized as part of the cost of assets for the years 2005 amounted to approximately Baht 0.2 million

3.8 Intangible asset and amortization

Leases of assets where the Company and subsidiaries have substantially been transferred all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Finance leases are recognized as assets and liabilities at the inception of the lease at the lower of the fair value of the leased property or the present value of the minimum lease payments. Each lease payment is allocated between the liability and finance charges so as to achieve a constant rate on the finance balance outstanding. The interest element of the finance cost is charged to the income statement over the lease period. The lease payment amount net of finance charges is recorded as the reduction of the outstanding liability. The depreciable assets acquired under finance leases are depreciated over the useful life of the assets.

3.10 Impairment of Assets

The Company and subsidiaries reviewed the impairment of assets whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the recoverable amount of assets is below the carrying amount (the higher of an assets selling price or value in use). The review is made for individual assets or the cash generating unit.

In case that the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the Company and subsidiaries recognize the impairment losses in the statements of income. The reversal of impairment losses recognized in prior years is recorded as other income when there is an indication that the impairment losses recognized for the assets no longer exist or are decreased.

Transactions in foreign currencies throughout the years are recorded in Baht at rates prevailing at the date of transactions. Outstanding foreign currency balances of assets and liabilities at the balance sheet dates are translated into Baht at the prevailing bank rates as of those dates.
