

Separation of power

For the benefit in performing duty of corporate governance and transparency of internal operation, position and authority of the Chairman and Managing Director, it has been separated clearly, not be the same person which is according to the principle of separation power between formulate policy of corporate governance and regular performance.

Refer : Policy of Corporate Governance page 17