Articles of Association Regarding the shareholders' Meeting

1. Calling of Shareholders' Meeting and Quorum

Article 33. The Board of Directors shall convene an annual ordinary meeting of shareholders within 4 months from the last day of the accounting period of company.

The shareholders' meeting other than specified above shall be called the extraordinary meeting. The Board of Directors may summon an extraordinary meeting whenever it deems appropriate, or when shareholders holding shares in the aggregate to not less than one-fifth of the total number of shares sold, or when not less than 25 shareholders holding shares in the aggregate not less than one-tenth of the total number of shares sold, subscribe their names in a letter requesting the Board of Directors to call an extraordinary meeting, provided that they clearly give the reasons and purposes for such request in the said letter. In the case of shareholders' request, the Board of Directors shall call the Shareholders' meeting within 1 month from the date of receipt of the letter from the shareholders.

In summoning the shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare an invitation notice of the meeting specifying the place, date, time, agenda, and the matters to be submitted to the meeting together with appropriate details stating clearly whether the matters will be for acknowledgment, for approval, or for consideration, including the opinions of the Board of Directors on the said matters, and shall send the same to the shareholders for information by registered post or by personal delivery to the shareholder or his or her representative not less than 7 days prior to the meeting. The notice of the meeting shall also be published in a newspaper for 3 consecutive days not less than 3 days prior to the meeting.

The shareholders' meeting shall be held in the locality in which the Head office is situated or one in which a branch office is situated, or in province near the locality where the Head Office or the branch office is situated, or in another province as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

Article 34. At a shareholders' meeting, there shall be not less than 25 shareholders and proxies (if any) present or not less than one-half of the total number of shareholders and proxies holding in the aggregate not less than one-third of the total number of shares sold present to constitute a quorum.

If after one hour from the time fixed for any shareholders' meeting the number of shareholders present is insufficient to form a quorum as specified, and the shareholders' meeting was convened at the request of shareholders, it shall be cancelled, but if the shareholders' meeting was not convened at the request of shareholders, the Board of Directors shall call another meeting and in such case the notice calling the meeting shall be sent to shareholders not less than 7 days before the date of the meeting. In the latter meeting, it is not necessary to constitute a quorum.

Article 36. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the shareholders' meetings. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors is absent or is unable to perform the duties, and there is a Vice Chairman, he shall preside over the meeting. If there is no Vice Chairman, or there is, but the Vice Chairman is unable to perform his duties, the meeting shall elect one of the shareholder present at the meeting to preside over the meeting.

2. Voting Rights

For the shareholders' meeting, a shareholder may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting and vote on his or her behalf. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be dated and signed by the shareholder appointing the proxy and shall be in the form prescribed by the Registrar.

The proxy instrument shall be delivered to the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the person determined by the Chairman at the meeting prior to the proxy entering the meeting.

Article 35. In casting votes, one share shall have one vote and resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall require:
